Show Report

- GVOS Show: We had 32 plants & received 20 ribbons, 7 first, 9 seconds, & 4 thirds. There were 10 vendors so the competition was tough. The display received a third.

Congratulations to Lori Lickly on receiving an AM/AOS on her Phrag Susan Decker. I would also like to thank Rollie Wilson (who lets us raid his greenhouse while he is in Florida), Tim Hueston, Marilyn Whittaker & Linda Sule for sending plants. Great big thank you 's to Marilyn Wittaker & Sally Heinlein for helping to set up the show & an extra big thank you to Linda Sule for helping to take the show down, set up & tear down. My son Kevin, his wife Kelli, & his friend Jim where there again this year to help with tear down. Last but not least a huge thank-you to my husband Tom – without him I would not be able to do this.
Carol

- GLOS Show: Congratulations to Sally Heinlein for her 1st on Phrag Chuck Acker and 3rd on Polystachya paniculata.

Kudos to Carol Jurek for her firsts on Phal. Malibu Tidings and Brassanthe Maidki, seconds on Laelia anceps, Phal. Mem. Thelma Ciscio, and Dendrochilium glumaceum (which was a division of mine with three flower spikes. Mine was on the same platform with four spikes and didn't get a ribbon – who has a clue why?) and on third place ribbons for SLC Hsin Buu Lady and Ascocenda Princess Mikasa.

Rollie is spending time in Florida, so all his orchids are on auto-pilot, but he still got a trophy as best specimen for a Dendrochilum tenellum, a second on Vascosenda Pine River, and five third place ribbons – Darwinara Charm, BLC Liese Pigors, SLC Seagulls Apricot, Epi. ilense, and Aerangis citrata.

I received two firsts on Phrag. Wossner Super Grande and Galeandra minax and a third on Paph Prime Child.

Thanks so much for all the help from Tom, Carol, Sally and Marilyn.

We finally got a blue ribbon on our display this year!! Thanks y'all!!
Linda Sule

- Illinois Orchid Society is pleased to announce that Tom Miranda, Orchid Collection Specialist at the Smithsonian Institution, will be keynote speaker and honored guest at the Illinois Orchid Society's 60th Anniversary Orchid Show and Sale on April 28 and 29, 2012. Held at the world renowned Chicago Botanic Gardens, we invite your orchid society to participate in this fantastic show. Please forward this message to your society president, newsletter editor, away show chair, and all other interested members.

We would love to have your society host an exhibit of 25 to 100 square feet. Registration for exhibit space takes less than a minute. Visit the spring show site at www.iosoc.com and click on Participate/Exhibit space. In addition to first, second and third place ribbons, 60th anniversary ribbons and awards will be granted in 27 Best of Class categories. Miss Illinois will be at the show to present nine special awards. This is an opportune time for your members to showcase their unusual orchids, vie for one or more of these ribbons and awards, meet Tom Miranda, and have their photograph taken with Miss Illinois!

Visitors to the show can expand their collections with the purchase of rare and unusual orchids from around the world.

Orchid vendors who have committed to attend include: Ten Shin Orchids, Ecuagenera, and Clown Alley Orchids, in addition to a number of Illinois based orchid growers. Special after-hour events on Saturday evening are being planned. Details will be posted on our website. The Chicago Botanic Garden will be in full bloom at the end of April.
